March 2014

Dear Valued Business Partner,

With the exciting introduction of our new innovative mask portfolio, Philips Respiroics will discontinue the production of GoLife, ComfortClassic, and Profile Lite adult version masks. These masks will be discontinued effective September 30, 2014; however, we will continue to fill orders through December 31, 2014, if inventory is available.

Patients who use these masks should have a more satisfactory experience with Nuance, Wisp and TrueBlue, which combine our most advanced mask technologies.

On behalf of Philips Respiroics, I greatly appreciate your continued business through our new masks. If you have any questions or need additional support, please contact your Philips Respiroics sales representative.

Sincerely,

Kevin Coldren

Director of Marketing, Patient Interface

Mask conversion chart

Example

A patient using a medium ComfortClassic will most likely fit a large Wisp.

		Wisp
		P	S/M	L	XL
ComfortClassic	S
	M

P = Petite
S = Small
S/M = Small/Medium
MS = Medium Small

M = Medium
MW = Medium Wide
L = Large
LN = Large Narrow

The sizing conversions provided in this chart are estimated conversions and are not guaranteed. Wisp and Nuance FitPacks contain all of the sizes.
